Building Relationship Opportunities for Young Professionals

The Society of Financial Service Professionals Twin Cities Chapter extends an open invitation for you and any guests you choose to invite to join other young professionals (40'ish and under) in a casual atmosphere to talk about: Marriage, parenthood, family, fitness, hobbies, health, career goals, business successes, business challenges, life or whatever you want!

What to Expect:

1. Share food, drink and conversation.
2. Meet and get to know, grow, learn from and build relationships with other successful professionals.
3. No agenda or formal presentations.
4. Visit for as short or long as you want.
5. Everyone pays their own way.
