Members of the Society of Financial Service Professionals are serious about success.

The Society is home to credentialed professionals who serve the public by providing financial, legal, and tax planning services. Nationally, the Society represents more than 17,000 members. The Twin Cities Chapter, established in 1934, serves over 160 members as their source for professional development and networking. The Chapter conducts monthly continuing education programs with attendance averaging 60 members. We also host a website, publish a newsletter, and use the latest in social media to connect with our members.

As an annual Chapter Advocate or Benefactor, you are supporting an organization that is dedicated to continuing education, ethical conduct, and professionalism.

Please review our Advocacy options and then support FSP-Twin Cities with a contribution.

Our members are serious about success and they are interested in continuous learning and networking with their peers and others who can help them improve their businesses. There success is your success!

Thank you for your commitment in helping the Society of FSP strengthen the bond of ethics, education and relationships in the Twin Cities Financial Services Community.
